Students enrolling in MATH 1010 should be familiar with:

- Solving linear equations, basic exponential equations, linear inequalities, and systems of linear equations in two variables.

- Graphing linear equations and linear inequalities.

- Solving absolute value equations and inequalities.

- Graphing exponential and logarithmic functions.