

The University Guest House is located on Salt Lake's east bench amidst the pristine beauty of Historic Fort Douglas. Whether you're here for a seminar or a football game, visiting a student in the nearby student housing or a patient in one of the university hospitals, there's only one place to stay — the University Guest House, the on-campus hotel.

Location, location, location

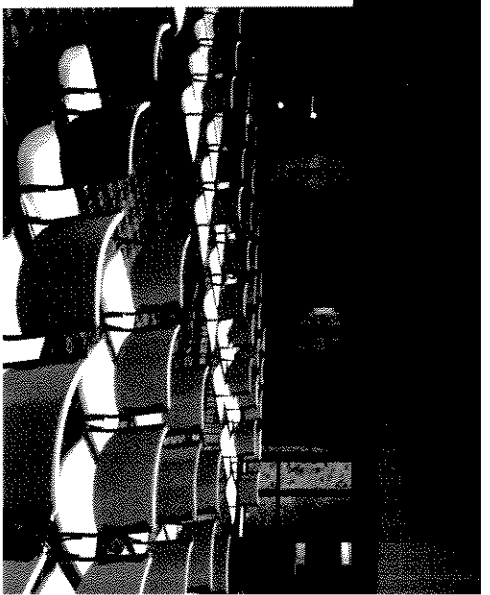

The Guest House and the entire campus, along with University Hospital, Primary Children's Hospital, and the Huntsman Cancer Institute are easily accessible, either on foot or by the free campus shuttles. The TRAX light rail trains put downtown and its myriad entertainment choices only minutes away. And when it's time for a quiet stroll, the grounds surrounding the Guest House are part of Fort Douglas, a dedicated national historic site.

Rooms with room

Built for the 2002 Olympic Winter Games, the University Guest House is a comfortable place to call home. Our 134 rooms and suites feature either a single king or two queen size beds. Each room also has a refrigerator, microwave, coffee maker, iron/board, hair dryer, cable TV, voicemail, internet, and free local phone calls. And the views from your window encompass the beautiful valley and campus below.
