Mathematics Teaching Assistants
August 2017

Office of the Dean of Students
270 Union Building
801-581-7066
http://deanofstudents.utah.edu/

ODOS Roles
• Student Support
• Student Conduct
• Behavioral Intervention Team
• Compliance
• Consultation/Troubleshooting/Training
• Student Athlete Advocate

Support
Coaching on how to reach out to professors
Connect to campus resources (counseling, etc.)
Awareness of community resources
Navigate proper University policy and procedures
Student/Student conflict resolution

Student Conduct
BRIAN BURTON
BBURTON@SA.UTAH.EDU // (801) 581-7066

Student Code of Rights and Responsibilities
• Community standards and processes for adjudication
(http://www.regulations.utah.edu/academics/6-400.html)
  • Student Behavior
  • Student Academic Performance
  • Student Academic Conduct
  • Student Professional and Ethical Conduct
  • Student Records
Processes and Procedures

- Administrative process, not a criminal court of law
- Due process rights paramount
- Preponderance of evidence standard
- Informal resolutions by mutual consent
- Formal administrative procedures
- Appeals
- Disciplinary records

Student Conduct Referrals

- Contact the Office of the Dean of Students with details
- Assist with the investigation
- Suggest a remedy to restore any harm that has been done
- Participate in hearing if necessary

http://deanofstudents.utah.edu/report/
801-581-7066
bburton@sa.utah.edu

Mission and Purpose
The Behavioral Intervention Team (BIT) identifies, assesses, and intervenes with students who may pose a threat to themselves or others at the University of Utah.

BIT takes a collaborative approach within the campus community to gather relevant information, connect distressed students to available support services and, where appropriate, recommends decisive action to promote individual and campus safety.

Behavioral Intervention Team
- Office of the Dean of Students
- Department of Public Safety
- Housing & Residential Education
- Counseling Center
- Center for Student Wellness
- Center for Disability & Access
- International Student & Scholar Services
- General Counsel
- Faculty

Behavioral Intervention
JO DES ROCHES
JDESROCHES@SA.UTAH.EDU // (801) 581-7066

Positive interaction between a student ‘who poses a risk’ and faculty, staff, and other students can be the best method for early identification and intervention.

Florida Gubernatorial Task Force for University Campus Safety, 2010
Functions and Procedures

Intervenes with person of concern
Alerts appropriate staff, admin, or police
Connects person of concern with support services

Levels of Behavior

Concerning Behaviors

Disruptive Behaviors

Threatening Behaviors

Concerning Behaviors

Federal Compliance

FERPA
Clery Act
Title VII
Title IX
VAWA
• Campus SaVE Act

Intended to protect individuals and campus community from criminal and discriminatory behavior

Compliance

OFFICE OF EQUAL OPPORTUNITY & AFFIRMATIVE ACTION
OFFICE OF GENERAL COUNSEL
OFFICE OF THE DEAN OF STUDENTS

University Rule 1-012

Duty to Notify. Any University representative who is contacted by an individual with a discrimination issue should advise that individual of the OEO/AA and the availability of the University complaint process. Once informed of a possible incident of prohibited discrimination, a supervisor, chair, dean, or other University representative should immediately inform the OEO/AA. A Responsible Employee must promptly report to the Title IX Coordinator allegations of Sexual Misconduct, subject to the confidentiality provisions of Rule 1-012B, Section III.C.
Title IX Coordinator
Sherrie Hayashi, Director
Office of Equal Opportunity and Affirmative Action
Park Building, Room 135
801-581-8365
Sherrie.Hayashi@utah.edu

Campus Crime Reporting
Department of Public Safety
801-585-COPS (2677)
https://dps.utah.edu/

Questions

Questions
deanofstudents.utah.edu
(801) 581-7066 // 270 Union Building

- Be clear with expectations
- Share concerns/report
- Stay involved
- Document actions
- When in doubt, consult