Congratulations! Your course is part of the Inclusive Access Program which means you will have access on the first day of class! Inclusive Access delivers all required course materials as part of your tuition or fees. If you are participating in this program, you do not need to buy course materials as they will be provided to you. You get the required digital resources automatically uploaded to your Canvas account, so you can get started on assignments faster and hassle-free. You are now prepared to excel and can feel confident that you have been provided the most competitive pricing available, auto-added to your tuition and fees bill.
