

2015-16 University of Utah Undergraduate Problem Solving Contest

Problem 4

Due 11
Feb 2016

Find a triangle, quadrilateral, and pentagon with integer side lengths whose areas form a set of three consecutive positive integers. Make the areas as small as possible subject to these constraints. Report your answer by giving the areas of each figure, together with side lengths for those figures.