

cryospheric tipping point

a tipping point exists if the ice does not recover from loss caused by climatic warming even if the climatic forcing returns to the colder conditions that existed before the loss

hysteresis